4 Each person in your family, and the stretch that brings them forward

Until March 2027, no one in your family asks for more of you than usual.

5 Your dasha periods

You are in a long chapter of your life that runs until May 2029.

1 Home and family now, and what is coming

Sample (invented birth), the stretch in which the family's money eases runs from November 2028 to May 2029.

When it comes, that stretch tends to bring prosperity shared with the family. You are 36 to 37 then. After that: June 2035 to October 2035, at age 43. Until November 2028, write down what the family owes and to whom, and ask lenders for easier terms. Avoid standing guarantee for a relative's loan.

Nothing in the stretch you are in leans either way on family life. This stretch runs until March 2027. (Why: the period you are in says nothing about family life now.) Treat family matters on their own merits now; nothing in this stretch asks you to hurry or to wait. It describes the stretch, not any one person. How the others in your family fare is in their own charts. Your birth time is within 5 minutes of a change in your rising sign, so what depends on it was set aside.

No single stretch stands out for family life in the years ahead. No period the texts point to for happy family times falls in the next 15 years. (Why: none of your fourth or second house, their lords, the Moon or Mercury is marked strongly either way.) Give your family regular time rather than waiting for a date; here the habit matters more than the timing.

No one stretch of the coming years stands out for help from brothers and sisters in your chart, so those years stay open. Look after the basics: your health, your savings and the people close to you. Avoid paying anyone who promises to fix the timing for you.

No stretch in the next twelve years is marked as one in which your mother needs more of your care. Keep her regular check-ups and visit often. Avoid putting off a doctor's visit when she needs one.

No stretch in the next 12 years takes you away from home for long. A move now would be one you choose, not one the year pushes on you.

2 The people you came from, read from this chart

Everything here comes from the chart whose birth details are at the top, about the family that person came from. If you bought it for a son, a sister or a parent, every "your" below is theirs. What it says about a relative comes from this chart, not from the relative's own. It describes those relationships and the distance in them, never what happened to anybody.

How many brothers and sisters there are is not something a chart counts, and health is a question for a doctor. No birth star, yours or a child's, Moolam and Chithirai included, is treated here as harm to a parent.

Your home is connected to teachers, to belief, and to what came down from the generation before. (Why: the ruler of your fourth house stands in the ninth, a good placement for it.)

Your household is on firm ground: its means and its people are both settled, and plainly so. (Why: the ruler of your second house is in its own house.)

You are first among your own line.

You are a real help to your relatives. (Why: your Sun is in Sagittarius.)

There is friction in your household. (Why: Mars aspects your house of home.)

You keep your distance from your brothers and sisters.

You and your father go together: you carry his bearing, his beliefs or his standing, whether or not you meant to. (Why: the ninth lord is in your first house, your lagna.)

There is weight on your home: responsibility, or a home life that was more serious than it was easy. It is a headwind for your home, not a verdict on it. (Why: Saturn aspects your fourth house.)

Your manner and your father's tend to be spoken of together: recognisably alike, whether or not that was welcome. (Why: the Sun, which stands for your father, is in your first house.)

Your siblings and your household's means are joined: resources that are shared, as an ordinary arrangement rather than a dispute. (Why: the third lord is in your second house.)

Your elders and friends are at a distance, and what they give you tends to go out again rather than stay. (Why: the eleventh lord is in your twelfth house.)

3 Your recent years, to check against your memory

Before the years ahead, here is how your last few years went for your family. Check each line against what you remember.

March 2020 to October 2020 (age 28): a good stretch for your family. It tends to bring a child born into the family, respect and good times among relatives and hosting and feeding others. (Why: Sevvai (Mars) rules your fifth and twelfth houses and is well placed in your chart.)

April 2022 to August 2023 (age 30–31): a good stretch for your family. It tends to bring help you give to relatives. (Why: Guru (Jupiter) rules your first and fourth houses and is well placed in your chart.)

March 2025 to August 2026 (age 33–34): a good stretch for your family. It tends to bring weddings and celebrations in the family. (Why: Budha (Mercury) rules your seventh and tenth houses and is well placed in your chart.)

Sample (invented birth), you may remember these years that way. This report dates the years ahead by the same rule.

4 Each person in your family, and the stretch that brings them forward

Until March 2027, no one in your family asks for more of you than usual. From March 2027, your elder brothers and sisters will need more of your time and attention. (Why: Shukra (Venus) runs that stretch, and your chart reads Shukra (Venus) for them.)

Each row gives the stretch when that relationship asks more of you or gives more back. Use that stretch to act on it. It describes your side of the relationship, from your chart. How the other person's own years go is in their chart, not in yours. (Why: each stretch is the sub-period of a graha read for that person — the lord of their house, a graha standing in it, or the graha that signifies them.)

5 Your dasha periods

You are in a long chapter of your life that runs until May 2029. Use the table below to see what each chapter brings you. (Why: this is your Chandra (Moon) mahadasha.)

Rows that end before today are years you have already lived. Check them against what happened: a period that does not match is worth noting.

Sample (invented birth), this is yours to keep. Come back to it whenever you need it.

6 How this chart was cast

Check the birth time first: 06:40, on భారతదేశ ప్రామాణిక సమయం, UTC+05:30. If an older horoscope shows 06:22, keep it: that is local time at the birth place, 18 min behind the clock.

Do not be thrown by a Western chart of this birth: every position here sits 23°45' behind it. (Why: that gap is the Lahiri (Chitrapaksha) ayanamsa.)

Check the houses against an older horoscope: they are counted by whole signs, each sign one house, starting from the rising sign. Check Rahu next: this chart takes it at its mean position, 15°22' Dhanus (Sagittarius), in Purva Ashadha. A horoscope on the true position puts it 39 minutes of arc away, in the same star: you can ignore the difference.

On 14 జనవరి 1992, at the birth place, the Sun rose at 06:38 and set at 18:14.

Check for 0 nazhigai 4 vinadi beside the birth time on a Tamil horoscope. That udayadi nazhigai is 0 h 1 min after that sunrise. (Why: two and a half nazhigai make an hour.)

If you doubt the recorded time, note that anyone born between 04:36 and 06:44 that day has Dhanus (Sagittarius) rising. A birth 124 minutes earlier would give Vrischika (Scorpio) rising. One 5 minutes later would give Makara (Capricorn) rising. Ask the family only if the time could be that far out.

The Moon changed star on 14 జనవరి 1992: from Ashwini into Bharani at 11:20. Use Ashwini as the birth star, for matching and at the temple: the Moon stood there at the birth.

7 The words and checks behind this reading

The words used above, defined — so you can check the reading against them, or hand these pages to the astrologer your family asks.

Each finding follows a classical rule. A dated period describes the kind of time those rules give; it does not fix an event to its dates.

The Tamil edition of this document prints the Tamil month and day beside each dated period as printed Tamil calendars give them: a month begins on the day the Sun enters its sign, by the calendar's own Sun, if it has entered by sunset at the place of birth, and on the next day if not. The chart itself, and every date it reads, is reckoned by Thirukanitha.

How to read these charts: each square is a sign and never moves. Mesha is always second in the top row. Dwadasamsa (D12) — parents Dwadasamsa (D12) — parents. The birth chart makes a promise about this part of life. The divisional chart says whether it is delivered, and it stands on its own terms with its own rising sign. Here Vrischika (Scorpio) rises. Your fourth ruler Guru (Jupiter) falls in Mesha (Aries) — the sixth from that rising sign.

That is the sixth, eighth or twelfth of the divisional chart, the difficult positions. What your birth chart promises here meets friction on the way: obstruction, delay, or a less obvious route. It is harder, not denied.

Your Sun stands in Dhanus (Sagittarius). Western astrology would call it Makara (Capricorn). Both are measuring the same sky from different starting points. This document counts from the fixed stars, the Western one from the spring equinox. The two have drifted 23° 45′ apart, which is the whole difference. That gap is why the sign you may already know is usually the one after this. Everything in this document uses the sidereal position.

Ayanamsa Lahiri (Chitrapaksha)

Ayanamsa value 23° 45′ 3″

House system Whole sign (rasi)

Rahu and Ketu Mean nodes — the smoothed node, which is what every printed almanac uses

Dasha year Julian year (365.25 days)

These four choices decide the numbers above. An astrologer working from a different setting will get a chart that disagrees with this one. The disagreement is in the convention rather than in the arithmetic. That is the first thing to check when this chart and one you already have disagree. (Why: a different ayanamsa or a different node gives different numbers.)
